

From Page

To Page

Class

Approved For Release 2003/12/02 : CIA-RDP75-00001R000300410013-6

LITTLE ROCK, ARK.
ARKANSAS GAZETTE

MORNING 89,266
SUNDAY 100,475

MAR 11 1962

Dr. Kintner To Conduct Seminar At Georgetown College Monday

GEORGETOWN, Ky. — Dr. William Kintner, professor of political science, Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, will conduct a seminar on the Georgetown College campus, March 12 at 2:30 p.m. in the John L. Hill Chapel Building.

Dr. Kintner is a retired United States Army Colonel. During his 21 years military career, he was assigned to the Office of the Secretary of Defense as a Planning Board Assistant to the National Security Council. He has held, in addition, assignments in the Central Intelligence Agency and as chief of Plans Branch of the United States Command. His last assignment in military service was as the chief of Long-Range Planning, the Coordination Group in the Office of the Chief of Staff, United States Army.